CLUB OF LETTERS: ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION
"विचारों का मंथन: हिंदी और गांधी"

Academic Year: 2024-2025

Program Organized By: Club of Letters

Program Theme: "विचारों का मंथन: हिंदी और गांधी"

Date: 3rd October 2024

Time: 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Number of Participants: 3

On 3rd October 2024, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM, the essay writing competition was successfully organized on the occasion of Hindi Diwas and Gandhi Jayanti by Club of Letters. The event aimed at promoting the importance of Hindi as a national language and commemorating the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, a key figure in India's independence struggle.

Mrs. Steffy Mary Chandy, Associate Professor, Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, commenced the event with a warm welcome and elaborating upon the theme of the competition "विचारों का मंथन: हिंदी और गांधी". The objective of the competition was to enhance the students' understanding of the significance of Hindi Diwas, to encourage students to reflect on Mahatma Gandhi's values of non-violence, truth, and simplicity through the Gandhi Jayanti theme and to nurture creative and critical writing skills in Hindi. Students showcased their writing skills, expressing a deep understanding of both Hindi as a cultural identity and Gandhi's influence on modern India.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Mrs. Rabin, Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmaceutics, to the organizing committee and participants for their enthusiastic participation. The event was made possible through the support and efforts of Mr. Padmaraj and Mrs. Aswathy C. Their contributions were instrumental in ensuring the smooth conduct of the program.

The essay competition was a successful event, encouraging students to express their thoughts on significant national topics in Hindi. It not only reinforced the importance of Hindi but also provided a platform for young minds to imbibe Gandhian values in today's context.

Report on Communicative English class for First Semester B Pharm students

Date :10-11-24

Time : 2 Pm-4 Pm

Venue: First Semester B Pharm classroom

The Communicative English class for first-semester BPharm students, held on November 10, 2024, aimed to enhance students' language skills and communication abilities crucial for their academic and professional success. The content was tailored to provide students with language skills specific to their future professional environment.

Ms. Adithya, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Al Shifa College of Arts and Science, experienced and dedicated instructor, led the class. Her expertise in English language instruction and understanding of the pharmaceutical field contributed significantly to the session's success. Students demonstrated commendable engagement throughout the session. The interactive nature of the class encouraged active participation, fostering a collaborative learning environment. The session incorporated formative assessments to gauge students' understanding and progress. These assessments included both individual and group activities, providing a holistic view of each student's communicative abilities.

Many students reported a boost in their confidence levels when communicating in English, especially in the context of pharmaceutical scenarios. The practical approach of the session contributed significantly to this positive outcome.

The session provided students with valuable language skills tailored to their future profession, fostering increased confidence and improved collaborative abilities. Addressing minor challenges and building on these achievements will contribute to the continued success of similar sessions in the future. The programme was concluded by 4 PM.
